

Not considered to be a Monkeypox exposure	Monkeypox exposure for which self-monitoring is recommended	Monkeypox exposure for which Occupational Health notification is recommended	Monkeypox exposure for which Occupational Health notification and vaccination is considered
Exposed individual was wearing a gown, gloves, eye protection, and either a surgical mask or N95 during care episode for person infected with Monkeypox	Exposed individual was wearing a surgical mask/KN mask/N95 and eye protection while within 6 feet of an unmasked person infected with Monkeypox.	Exposed person is not wearing a gown and their clothing has had direct contact with the lesions, body fluids, mucous membranes and potentially contaminated materials (e.g. linens, equipment and clothing) of a person infected with Monkeypox	Exposed person has had direct contact (either with skin or mucous membranes) to the lesions, body fluids or mucous membranes of the individual infected with Monkeypox
	Exposed person was wearing a surgical mask/KN mask/N95 (but not eye protection) or eye protection (but not a face covering) while within 6 ft of a masked person infected with Monkeypox for a duration of <3 hours.	Exposed person has had direct contact with intact skin to an area of intact skin (without visible lesions) of a person infected with Monkeypox (e.g. shaking hands)	Exposed person has had direct contact with non-intact skin to potentially contaminated materials (including linens, equipment and clothing) of a person infected with Monkeypox.
	Exposed person was wearing a surgical mask/KN mask/N95 while within 6 feet of a masked individual infected with Monkeypox.	Exposed person was not wearing either a surgical mask/KN mask/N95 OR eye protection while within 6 feet of an unmasked individual infected with Moneypox for a duration of > 3 hours (cumulative over the course of a 24 hour period)	Exposed person without an N95 and eye protection has been within 6 ft of an individual infected with Monkeypox during an aerosol generating procedure (AGP)
			Exposed individual was a household contact or hospital roommate of an individual infected with Monkeypox